Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 3rd September 1955

S.R.O. 344.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 16 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), the Central Government is pleased to fix the 21st September, 1955, as the date on which casual election shall be held in Shahjahanpur Cantonment (Ward Nos. II and IV).

[No. 29/8/G/L&C/55/D(C&L).]

CANTONMENTS-TAXATION

S.R.O. 345.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 60 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), the Cantonment Board of Nasirabad with the previous sanction of the Central Government hereby abolishes the following taxes in force within the limits of Nasirabad Cantonment:—

- (1) Motor Vehicle Tax imposed under S.R.O. No. 159 dated 17th May, 1952.
- (2) Toll Tax imposed under S.R.O. No. 477 dated 1st December, 1951.

[No. F.53/32/G/L&C/54/7392-LC/D(C&L).]

S.R.O. 346.—The following bye-laws made by the Cantonment Board Jhansi for the regulation and control of loudspeakers in the Jhansi Cantonment in exercise of the powers conferred by clauses (28), (38) and (39) of section 282 and section 283 of the Cantonments Act 1924 (II of 1924) are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

1. Except with the permission of Executive Officer and on such conditions as may be imposed under these byelaws, no person shall make use of any loud-speaker or other electrically or mechanically operated means of producing loud noises, whether stationary or fitted to any motor lorry or other moving vehicle within the limits of the Jhansi Cantonment;

“Provided that no such permission shall be necessary for the use of any loud-speaker for any purpose which is official in the opinion of the Executive Officer”.

2. An application for obtaining permission shall be submitted to the Executive Officer who may, with due regard to public safety and convenience, in his discretion refuse or grant permission and in granting such permission he may impose any reasonable conditions in respect of the use of the said apparatus. The Board may from time to time lay down instructions for the guidance of the Executive Officer in the matter.

3. Any permission given or condition imposed under these byelaws may be withdrawn or varied by the Executive Officer where such withdrawal or variation appears necessary in the interest of the public. Every permission given under these byelaws shall be subject to such magisterial orders as may be issued in any emergency.

4. Any person aggrieved by an order of the Executive Officer, made under these bye-laws, may appeal to the Cantonment Board, within ten days from the date of the communication of such order to him.

PENALTY

5. Any contravention of the provision of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and in the case of a continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first of such contravention.
